

School for Scoundrels

94 mins, UK, b/w

Dir Robert Hamer

Alastair Sim, Ian Carmichael, Terry-Thomas, Janette Price

Bung ho! Terry-Thomas is of course the ultimate cad, so it is necessary to suspend disbelief for this tale in which he is out-bounded by Ian Carmichael after the latter attends a course in one-upmanship.

Carmichael is a loser in love, at work and everywhere else until he enrolls at wily Alastair Sim's School for Scoundrels. After passing his course with flying colours he sets off to get his own back on those who have previously put him down. Fun moments include Carmichael thrashing Terry-Thomas at tennis, and selling his old banger of a car back to con men
